

GALOPINA

CASA SILVESTRE

Weddings & elopements

Galopina is a peaceful haven, where time stops. It is a place in harmony with nature nestled in the Yucatecan countryside, a privileged space within the cenotes reserve just 30km from Merida.

Galopina is the ideal space to organize the event of your dreams embraced by aesthetics and country airs.

Seyé, Yucatán

Spaces for events: Designed to blend seamlessly into the wilderness, Galopina offers a one-of-a-kind setting for intimate weddings and elopements. It has intimate spaces in the middle of nature decorated with garlands, vegetation, bonfires and stars.

Common areas: swimming pool, the bar, the terrace, gravel around the house, two bonfires and trails.

Photoshooting spots: Romantic spots to create a Yucatecan fairy tale style photo shoot.

First class Lodging service: Galopina offers five exquisitely appointed suites, each designed to provide the utmost comfort and relaxation.

Galopina is located in the middle of a 7-hectare wilderness, immersed in nature.

Imagine exchanging vows under twinkling string lights in our open-air spaces or walking hand in hand along a romantic path beneath a rustic bridge framed by towering trees and birdsong.

Guests can gather around two cozy fire pits for intimate evenings. Our signature round pool provides the perfect backdrop for a chic cocktail hour, inviting everyone to mingle and celebrate under the Yucatán sky.

Galopina isn't just a venue; it's a living, breathing experience where nature and celebration meet to create a wedding like no other.

Our five suites

Immersed in nature, the Galopina experience is one of disconnection and tranquility.

From all rooms, there is a direct view of the dense vegetation, where you can observe the birds and the blue sky of the Yucatan.
